

Justin Choi

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Chemistry

Secondary Teaching Credential (Science)

San Jose State University, San Jose, CA

Experience:

Chemistry Teacher, Irvington High School, Fremont, CA August 2019 - Present

- Teach Chemistry to high school students in Irvington High School
- Promote collaboration, teamwork, and leadership to help students grow beyond learning Chemistry.
- Work together with individual students with learning styles that best fit their strengths and weaknesses.
- Prepare AP Chemistry students to take the College Board AP Exam.

Coach, Fremont Unified School District, Fremont, CA February 2015 - Present

- Teach badminton, teamwork, and leadership skills to high school students in the Irvington Badminton Team
- Create an effective lesson plan for every practice to efficiently learn all the skills needed to play badminton.
- Publicly announcing important information to the players
- Analyzing and teaching skills based on each individual's performance
- 3 teams qualified for the regional championships, NCS, and 2 teams qualified for northern California, Norcal, championships

Teacher, Lydian Academy, Menlo Park, CA June 2018 - August 2018

- Taught high school students Math and Science one-on-one in an accredited course
- Planned lessons to finish the course in the given amount of time
- Worked with struggling students that did not thrive in a classroom setting
- Adapted to the different learning styles each student preferred

Certifications & Skills:

- Fluent in spoken Cantonese and Mandarin
- First aid/CPR certified